Mon., April 19: Schaumburg, IL Join Utopia Tours on this fulfilling tour seeing Bible stories come to life at the Ark Encounter and Creation Museum. Our first day will take us to Schaumburg, IL, making meal and comfort stops along the way.

Tues., April 20: Florence, KY (B, D) From Schaumburg, we continue on through Indiana to Kentucky. Our next two nights are in Florence, KY area. After checking in to our hotel we will take a short drive to Newport, KY, where we'll board the *BB Riverboat for a Dinner Cruise on the Ohio Rive*r. Enjoy the meal, sights and entertainment as we cruise along this evening.

Wed., April 21: Florence, KY (B, L) A short drive south brings us to Williamstown, KY, and the Ark Encounter. This life-sized Ark was built according to the dimensions given in the Bible and is the largest timber frame structure in the world. It's partly built by skilled Amish craftsmen, using standing dead timber. The Ark is an architectural and engineering wonder containing three decks of world-class exhibits within this unique attraction that brings to life the biblical accounts of Noah's Ark. It spans 510 feet long, 85 feet wide, and 51 feet high. You will learn about the life of Noah, how he and his family could have fit in the Ark, how they cared for the animals on the Ark, and how his life was before the flood. A must-see, and is enjoyed by young and old alike. You will receive a voucher for lunch at Emzara's while here. Later we'll return to our hotel for a night on your own at a local restaurant.

Thurs,. April 22: Schaumburg, IL (B, L) Leaving Florence, we head to Petersburg, KY, where we will visit the Creation Museum. The Museum brings the pages of the Bible to life, casting its characters and animals in dynamic form, and placing them in familiar settings. The museum allows for personal interaction with each of the 160 exhibits. You'll also find a Stargazer's Planetarium, Theater, the Garden of Eden, life-sized dinosaurs, a Petting Zoo, Botanical Gardens, Bookstore, Zip Line, and much more. A lunch voucher is included here at Noah's Restaurant. Our journey continues back through Indiana arriving in Schaumburg, IL, later this evening and a meal stop enroute.

B=Breakfast, L=Lunch, D=Dinner included that day
