Mountain goats are the symbol of the Park. Be on the lookout for them as we go through the Park. The Highway goes over Logan's Pass, crosses the Continental Divide where the buses stop for a short while. He named the town Medora after his wife.
This evening we head out to enjoy a savory meal at the Pitchfork Fondue. At dusk we watch the Medora Musical from our outdoor seats, nestled into the hillside and overlooking the Badlands.
